- Your trip includes travel on another airlines, so we recommend reviewing their travel guidelines to ensure you have a smooth trip.
- A travel waiver is in effect for your reservation.

View the waiver details to understand your options for fee-waived changes. If you'd like to make a change, select Change flights below. If you're not ready to change now, select Cancel options to view your options for future flight credit, or refunds, if applicable.

You must wear a face covering that fully covers both your nose and mouth in the airport and during your entire flight, unless you're eating or drinking, for the safety of everyone. A face shield alone does not count as a face covering. Travelers who aren't wearing their face coverings in the airport or on board may be refused transport and could also lose their travel privileges on future United flights. Children younger than 2 years old are exempt.

Your upcoming trip requires travel documentation such as passports and/or visas. Use this tool to determine which documents you'll need.
